

Parents – I would really appreciate it if you could read or pass on my letter to your children. Thank you. Keep safe.

PE & Sport Update – 15th June 2020

Hello everyone,

I hope you are all well and have been keeping active at home. It seems a little strange to be teaching some of you at school and missing the rest of your smiling faces! The bad news is that the rabbits have made lots more holes on the field while we have been away so we are having to take great care and cover them all up with cones.

I have put together a few more learning sheets for you, which I hope you will enjoy.

My last letter talked about National School Sports Week (20th – 26th June) which is being run by the Youth Sport Trust. With many young people set to miss out on their main school sports day this summer, the Youth Sport Trust is taking its annual National School Sport Week campaign beyond the school gates to parents and families - reinvented as National School Sport Week at Home. I have put the activity ideas sheets and personal challenge sheets in your pack so maybe you could try to take part in a different activity each day of NSSW.

Also I am pleased to announce – The Scole Primary Sock Olympics! Yes, you did read that correctly we are going to have a Sock Olympics at home. The Tokyo 2020 Olympics has been moved to 2021 so we have an extra year to complete our laps of the track to reach our Tokyo goal. I thought maybe we should have our own Olympics anyway so all you need is a ball of socks, stopwatch or timer and a tape measure! You will see the sheets that detail how to take part, my top tips for all the activities and a score card so you record all your results. You can even send me a photo of your completed score card at office@scole.norfolk.sch.uk if you would like to. I hope you enjoy taking part!

I will be putting this letter and the Sock Olympic sheets on the Home Learning pages of the website and the PE & Sport pages, which still contain the weekly challenges from the Virtual School Summer Games.

As you know I am a massive football fan and I have really missed watching football so I am super excited that next week I will be able to watch matches again from my sofa! I will also keep walking around the village as I miss my daily walk if I do not get the time to do it. Please keep active and enjoy the weather everyone.

I hope to see you all soon. Keep safe.
