The Kaola Who Could

Focus of activity: Story sequencing.

Activity: Write these events from the story in the correct order.

	The roos and dingos also wanted him to play. But Kevin said he had clinging to do.
	When he opened his eyes, he realised he felt first class! He joined them to play.
	Kevin preferred it up high. The ground below was too fast, loud, big and strange.
	Kevin couldn't let go. His life was the same, every day, as weeks and months passed.
	But Kevin couldn't let go. Down came the tree with Kevin clinging on!
	In a wonderful place, a koala called Kevin clung to a tree. He loved to relax in the sun.
	One day, Wombat asked him if he wanted to play, but Kevin said he was busy.
	Until he awoke to a tap-tap-tap sound. The animals below told him to un-cling.
