

Dolphin Facts

Their babies are called pups.

They live in schools.

They talk by clicking and whistling.

They are very clever.

They like to play.

They eat fish.

They come up to the top of the water to breathe.